

Autumn Year 2022 EYFS2	In Reception, we build on the foundations from Nursery and continue to provide children with opportunities to explore and learn language rich stories and rhymes. Books are central to our learning, with a weekly book focus that links to our topic. The children also enjoy storybooks with a maths focus and daily stories, which allow them to listen and explore a range of exciting and engaging books, which-continue to help develop a life-long love of reading.	Links meaningfully	Interesting Engaging	Strong Narrative	Provide diversity	Accessible to all	Distinctive Playful Memorable	Thought provoking Challenging	Craft of writing
Texts used	Nursery Rhyme book (poetry)
	Once There Were Giants - Martin Waddell
	Pumpkin Soup- Helen Cooper
	Handa's Surprise- Eileen Browne
	Blown away - Rob Biddulph
	Cornish Stories/ tales
	Room on the Broom – Julia Donaldson
	Stick Man – Julia Donaldson
	We're Going on a Bear Hunt – Michael Rosen
	Each Peach Pear Plum - Janet and Allan Ahlberg
	Lost and Found – Oliver Jeffers
	Range non – fiction. Arctic Animals/ polar regions
	Twas the night before Christmas –
The Mousehole Cat – Antonia Barber

Spring Year 2023 EYFS 2	In Reception, we build on the foundations from Nursery and continue to provide children with opportunities to explore and learn language rich stories and rhymes. Books are central to our learning, with a weekly book focus that links to our topic. The children also enjoy storybooks with a maths focus and daily stories, which allow them to listen and explore a range of exciting and engaging books, which-continue to help develop a life-long love of reading.	Links meaningfully	Interesting Engaging	Strong Narrative	Provide diversity	Accessible to all	Distinctive Playful Memorable	Thought provoking Challenging	Craft of writing
Texts used	Peace at Last - Jill Murphy
	Not Now, Bernard - David McKee
	Brown Bear, Brown Bear, What Do You See? - Bill Martin Jr and Eric Carle
	Little Red Riding Hood/ The Three Little Pigs
	Peepo! - Janet and Allan Ahlberg
	Hoot Owl, Master of Disguise - Sean Taylor
	Mr Wolf's Pancakes - Jan Fearnley
	Where the Wild Things Are – Maurice Sendak
	Peter Pan – Ladybird Classics
	Grumpy Frog - Ed Vere
	How Many Legs? - Jim field and Kes Gray (non-fiction)
	Usborne – Easter Story (non-fiction)
	Range of non – fiction Space and birds

Summer Year 2023 EYFS2	In Reception, we build on the foundations from Nursery and continue to provide children with opportunities to explore and learn language rich stories and rhymes. Books are central to our learning, with a weekly book focus that links to our topic. The children also enjoy storybooks with a maths focus and daily stories, which allow them to listen and explore a range of exciting and engaging books, which-continue to help develop a life-long love of reading.	Links meaningfully	Interesting Engaging	Strong Narrative	Provide diversity	Accessible to all	Distinctive Playful Memorable	Thought provoking Challenging	Craft of writing
Texts used	The Queens Hat - Steve Antony
	Monkey and Me - Emily Gravet
	The Tiny Seed - Eric Carle/ The Hungry Caterpillar – Eric Carle
	Charlie and Lola - I will not ever never eat a tomato - Lauren Child
	Oi Frog! Kes Grey
	The Tales of Beatrix Potter
	The Lighthouse Keeper’s Lunch – David and Ronda Armitage
	Tiddler - Julia Donaldson
	Non – fiction books - The sea/ sea creatures
	Non – fiction books – Seaside holidays
	Rainbow Fish – Marcus Pfister
	Oh, the Places You’ll Go! - Dr Seuss
	Stories from other cultures
	Zagazoo - Quentin Blake								