

School Uniform Policy

Audience:	Parc Eglos School pupils, parents, staff.
Approved:	Governors of Parc Eglos School – March 2026
Reviewed:	To be reviewed in March 2028
Other related policies / procedures	This policy should be read in conjunction with: - Behaviour Policy - DfE guidance on School Uniform (updated November 2025)
Owner	Vicky Sanderson – Headteacher
Policy / procedure model	MAT policy: all Crofty schools use this policy

Aims

This school uniform policy aims to:

- Clearly explain to parents/carers the school uniform and dress code
- Identify the purpose of having a school uniform
- Identify sanctions for not adhering to the policy

Purpose

The purpose of school uniform is to:

- Encourage a sense of pride and belonging
- Promote equality
- Ensure clothing is practical, safe and comfortable
- Support positive behaviour for learning.

Uniform

Winter:

Red tartan skirts or pinafore dress (Purchased from Parc Eglos School)

Black/Grey trousers

White shirt/polo shirt

Scarlet cardigan, v neck pullover or sweater

Tights/Black or Grey Socks

Summer:

Red gingham summer dress

Black/Grey trousers or shorts

Red or white ankle socks

White shirt/polo shirt

Scarlet cardigan, v neck pullover or sweater

Footwear:

Sensible shoes (no crocs or wedges/platforms/sandals)

P.E Kit

Black gym shorts

Cotton T-shirt (Team colour)

Black gym shoes

Hair:

We recommend that hair is tied back all the time. School coloured hairbands should be worn. No 'extravagant' hair pieces are to be worn as these may distract from our learning.

Jewellery:

If earrings need to be worn, please only wear small studs. A watch is permitted, however this cannot be a 'smart' watch. No other jewellery should be worn to school.

Please note that it is essential that all items of clothing and property are clearly labelled.

Outdoor Education

Parents will be informed of any specific clothing required.

School Trips

Full school uniform must be worn unless otherwise instructed.

Additional Items

Book bags and PE bags are available.
All pupils should have a suitable school bag.

Second-hand Uniform

Pre-loved uniform is available throughout the year, at the front of school – these items are available for a very small donation.
Donations of good quality uniform are welcomed.

Sanctions

If pupils do not follow the uniform policy:

- Spare uniform may be provided
- Parents/carers may be contacted
- Persistent non-compliance may result in sanctions in line with the Behaviour Policy